EasCorp's 2023 Invitational Golf Tournament Raises a Record $57,000 for Research on Pediatric Neurological Disorders

Burlington, MA – Eastern Corporate Federal Credit Union (EasCorp) announced a record $57,000 was raised at its 2023 Invitational Golf Tournament benefitting Credit Unions Kids at Heart®. On Monday, September 11, 2023, more than 120 golfers and volunteers gathered at Tedesco Country Club in Marblehead, MA, for the annual golf tournament. The tournament featured contests, games, and an auction raising funds in support of the charitable organization's mission and vision.

Credit Unions Kids at Heart is a collaborative charitable organization founded in 1996 by EasCorp and the credit union community. The organization's mission is to help children lead healthy and happy lives, and the group raises funds for research aimed at the prevention, treatment, and cure of pediatric neurological disorders, including cerebral palsy, pediatric brain cancer, pediatric epilepsy and other seizure disorders, and Moyamoya disease. Credit Unions Kids at Heart works closely with renowned research investigators and clinical care specialists at Boston Children's Hospital and Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center.

Jane Melchionda, Chairman, Credit Unions Kids at Heart, said of the event, "We are grateful to EasCorp's leadership and to the credit union community for their involvement and philanthropy. Our golfers, who represented many Credit Unions Kids at Heart Participating Credit Unions and Corporate Sponsors, gave generously to the cause. We were also pleased to let our Patient Partner families and our Research Investigators meet the people who support them."

Credit Unions Kids at Heart is a favorite philanthropic activity of the credit union community in New England and beyond, with more than 50 participating credit unions, corporate sponsors, and other business partners. Since its founding, Credit Unions Kids at Heart has donated over $9 million toward its mission.

EasCorp President and CEO Cynthia Nelson said, "We are proud to support the work of Credit Unions Kids at Heart. The funds raised at this year's golf tournament will go directly and in full to life-saving research. We have witnessed firsthand their advancements—new diagnostic tools and breakthrough treatment protocols that are changing the lives of children and adults worldwide."
